1. Prosecution of the instant application is reopened.
2. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

3. Claims 53 is provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claim 51 of copending Application No. 08/437952. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented. The two sets of claims read on the same peptide.

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Art Unit: 1644

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 41-44,52,55,56 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 21,47,51,54 of copending Application No. 08/437952. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter, as follows. The two sets of claims are drawn to immunogenic compositions/peptides versus immunogenic peptides which differ in scope but encompass the same peptide/peptide conjugates. The peptide of SEQ. ID. NO:8 is derived from HCV and is the same in both applications. Diphtheria toxin is a non-HCV amino acid sequence. The agents of claims 43 and 44 are well known in the art as linking agents.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other copending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

6. Claim 53 is provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 21,47,54 of copending Application No. 08/437952. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter, as follows. The two sets of claims are drawn immunogenic peptides which differ in scope but encompass the same peptide.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other compending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

7. Claims 41-44,52,53,55,56 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 43,44,47,48,50,51 of compending Application No. 08/438183. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced compending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that compending application since the referenced compending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter, as follows. The two sets of claims are drawn to immunogenic compositions/peptides versus immunogenic compositions which differ in scope but contain the same peptide/peptide conjugates. The peptide of SEQ. ID. NO:8 is derived from HCV and is the same in both applications. The agents of claims 43 and 44 are well known in the art as linking agents.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other compending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

8. No claim is allowed.
